Celebrating You

Every couple is unique, with their own quirks, habits and history. How and where you met, your favourite places to visit together, your shared passions - these are the things that create the story of who you are as a couple.

Your wedding day is the day you celebrate this uniqueness. It is the day you celebrate your love for each other. It is the start of your married life together. At Midlands Park Hotel, we want to capture and create a wedding experience that's full of joy and completely unique to you. This experience starts here.

The Days Before

The excitement begins. Working with our team in the lead up to your special day means that by the time you arrive at Midlands Park Hotel, the stage is set for a truly unique wedding experience. Our team love getting to know you as individuals and as a couple. We bring ideas that capture your uniqueness. From the moment you arrive, we take care of everything.

The Final Touches

Enjoy precious time with family and friends by sharing a meal in Kelly's Steakhouse, Charter Bar & Eatery or The Trióg Restaurant. All brides and grooms have complimentary access to our Health Club which has a 22m swimming pool, two jacuzzis, a sauna, a steam room and a fully equipped gym. Pamper yourselves with our luxurious spa treatments. We are focused on making sure you relax and enjoy one another's company.

The Morning Of

Whether at home or staying with us, your special day is finally here. If staying with us, spend the morning your way with breakfast in bed or a refreshing swim in the pool. Share a glass of champagne with your closest friends and family in your suite as you get ready. This is your day to enjoy and to spend exactly how you choose.

Your Wedding, Your Way

Your Big Moment

This is the moment you've been waiting for; the moment you join your lives together. For both of you, this is an intimate moment of joy, emotion and togetherness shared with your closest family and friends.

For couples choosing a Civil, Humanist or Spiritual Ceremony you have a choice of civil ceremony rooms. For example this exclusive Civil Ceremony Suite set against the backdrop of our elegant Garden Terrace is a charming setting to exchange your vows. This Suite can hold up to 200 people. Our other suite options can cater for up to 350 people. Chiavari Chairs and choice of Mood Lighting allow you to bring personality and uniqueness to the experience.

Emo Court House and Gardens

Originally the home of the Earl of Portarlington, Emo Court House and Gardens is a stately home, a stone's throw from Midlands Park Hotel. The building of Emo Court began by the First Earl of Portarlington in 1790. It is the only private house designed by James Gandon (1743-1823), the architect best known for his great public buildings including the Custom House and the Four Courts in Dublin. The house is a magnificent example of the neo-Classical style, reflecting the architecture of ancient Greece and Rome. It took some 70 years to build.

Nestling in the foot of the Slieve Bloom Mountains, the house is surrounded by beautiful gardens and parkland which were laid out in the 18th century and contain formal lawns, a lake and woodlands walks. Explore Emo Court your way by enjoying a stroll through the woodlands or getting lost in its lush gardens. This is an idyllic setting for photos you'll treasure long after your special day.

Time for a Toast

The rings have been exchanged, the vows recited and sealed with a kiss - now comes the time to celebrate this joyful occasion with your guests. Our stylish Ballroom is the perfect setting for a night of fun, laughter and memories that will last a lifetime.

Lavish in decor, with Chiavari Chairs, Mood Lighting and Fairy Lit Backdrop our ballroom can be customised for guests lists of up to 350 people. Dramatic chandeliers, framed by gilded panelling and our classic arched windows bring a unique sense of grandeur and style to this room.
